

CORE TRAININGHomeland Security Training

The threat of terrorism demands a new level of commitment and readiness inside the world of law enforcement. This means greater preparedness, more knowledge, and increased training requirements are needed. Our Homeland One Core Curriculum will put you ahead of the learning curve, meeting your needs before they become mandates. The curriculum is progressive, with each course serving as the stepping-stone for the next.

NEW A+ Homeland One Awareness Level: CIP—Applying Countermeasures, Part 1 of 2

947-1016

The fifth and final step of the CIP process, application of countermeasures, is designed to reduce or prevent the degradation or loss of an asset due to an identified threat. Within the emergency services sector, countermeasures are typically applied to personnel, physical assets, and both cyber and communications systems. This program aids the viewer in gaining an understanding the final step in the Critical Infrastructure Protection Process as outlined by the U.S. Fire Administration. Based on ODP guidelines.

A+ Homeland One Awareness Level: Detecting Weapons of Mass Destruction, Part 2 of 2

947-1009

This course prepares emergency responders to detect the potential presence of WMD agents and materials and to recognize possible strategies that may be used for their deployment.

SUPPORTNEW A+ Calibre Presents Roll Call: Officer Ambushed—The Mike Sawyer Incident

057-0105

Uniformed and identifiable law enforcement officers risk being ambushed on a daily basis. Sterling Heights, Mich., police officer Mark Sawyer is a prime example. Officer Sawyer was murdered in an unprovoked ambush while sitting in his patrol car filling out paperwork. His killer wanted the officer's service weapon to commit a bank robbery. We'll show you how to keep from becoming an easy ambush target.

NEW A+ Identity Crime Part 1 of 2: The Victim

160-0105

Identity theft is the fastest growing crime in America. Financial institutions, businesses and individuals have lost upwards of 48 billion dollars to fraudulent charges. In today's information-driven world, criminals have an unlimited number of tools that allow them to access personal information. Part 1 of this two-part series looks at the victim: who is targeted, what it takes to recover from this crime, and how to prevent becoming a victim.

NEW A+ LETN Special Report Hidden Poison: Cyanide and Smoke Inhalation

038-0050

We all know that it's not flames but smoke that kills the majority of fireground victims. However, our understanding of exactly why smoke kills is not always what it should be. This special report presents the true dangers of smoke inhalation, going beyond carbon monoxide and delving deeper into the hidden danger of cyanide poisoning. Discover how to recognize the risk of cyanide exposure as well as the promise of cutting-edge techniques used internationally that could help reduce the number of smoke inhalation deaths.

A+ Going for the Green: The Secrets of Grant Success, Part 1 of 2

038-2005

Knowing how to design and develop a potential grant proposal is essential to achieving grant success. This two-part series demonstrates the correct procedure for formatting grant proposals and applications. It illustrates how to choose a writing style that corresponds with the grant organization you are dealing with. Finally, you will learn how to locate potential grant-making organizations using recommended reference materials.

CLASSICA+ Legal Update: Illinois v. McArthur

165-0005

In the 2001 case of Illinois v. McArthur, the U.S. Supreme Court answered the question, "Is it reasonable for the police to briefly seize a house and prevent unaccompanied entry into the house until a search warrant is obtained?" This program discusses the Court's decision.

A+ Spontaneous Knife Defense

176-2129

Bill Burroughs discusses what you need to know about knife attacks. Bill demonstrates types of edged-weapon cuts, the most dangerous to be wary of, and how to avoid being surprised.

A+ The Emotionally Raging Subject

179-0145

Controlling an individual is difficult enough, but when that person is emotionally charged it can be even more difficult and dangerous. This training demonstrates techniques for physical control.
