 Calibre Presents Roll Call: Compartmental Searches

057-0107

  Drug smugglers are constantly adapting their methods in order to evade police detection. This program will examine the tools and methods currently being used to search passenger and commercial vehicles. We will identify common contraband concealment containers and identifiers of drug courier vehicles as well as the legalities and procedural use of K-9 units.

 Juvenile Corrections

111-0107

  This course discusses how and why juvenile offenders develop differently than non-offenders, how corrections officers can better supervise juvenile offenders, and explores techniques for dealing with violent juvenile offenders. The course further covers detection and prevention of juvenile offender suicide attempts and looks at programs available to help juvenile offenders reintegrate into society after release from the detention facility.

 Tactical Thinking: Mind Over Body

111-0001

 Tactical thinking drills provide officers a safe opportunity to think critically through scenarios and develop experiences to draw from when facing a real-life situation. This course, the first in a seven-part series, discusses tactical thinking, decision-making processes during a threat, and the natural response of the officer's mind and body during stress. The mental phenomenon of tunnel vision is also highlighted to further emphasize the importance of ongoing training

 Traffic Stops and Racial Profiling: Citizen Rights

111-0013

  "Traffic stops are among the most common interactions between the public and the police. Unfair and illegal practices such as discriminatory profiling can have a major negative impact on the public perception of law enforcement. This series of examines the practice of racial profiling as it relates to traffic stops.

Part 4 of 6 discusses the constitutional and citizen rights that should be considered when officers conduct traffic stops, including a citizen's reasonable expectation of privacy and equal protection under the law. Significant court cases and decisions that affect the policies and procedures of traffic stops are also explored.

 Calibre Presents Roll Call: Confronting the Suicide Bomber: Determining Agency Policy

057-0106

 Suicide bombers have a history dating back to the well-known attacks in the Middle East during the 1980s. United States government officials speculate it is only a matter of time before suicide bombers attack on American soil. Are you prepared to identify a suicide bomber? Are you clear on your agency's policies and procedures for handling such a suspect? This course explores the history of suicide bombers, including their reasons for volunteering and their typical methods used to carry out missions. Discussion also covers the "shoot in the head" policy put forth by International Association of Chiefs of Police and the subsequent debate on how local agencies should define their policies and procedures.

 Calibre Presents Roll Call: Officer Ambushed: The Mark Sawyers Incident

057-0105

 Uniformed and identifiable law enforcement officers run the risk of being ambushed on a daily basis. Sterling Heights, Mich., police officer Mark Sawyers is a prime example. Officer Sawyers was murdered in an unprovoked ambush while sitting in his patrol car filling out paperwork because his killer wanted the officer's service weapon to commit a bank robbery. This presentation shows you actions to take to keep from becoming an easy ambush target in this enlightening presentation.

 Tactical Patrol: Pursuit Phases and Technologies

163-0013

 "This course covers two pertinent topics of vehicle pursuit. First, the phases of a pursuit will be discussed along with the activities and decisions that occur during each phase. Second, since the goal of each pursuit is safely stopping the fleeing vehicle, current and potential vehicle-stopping technologies will be examined."

 CORRECTIONS DIGEST I: Gangs and Jail Recreation

186-0055

 This course addresses important issues and offers solutions to critical problems confronting corrections personnel. This edition also examines the areas of gangs in jail, how best to deal with them, and how to establish a jail recreation program that satisfies the public, the inmates, and the courts.

 CORRECTIONS DIGEST II: Avoiding Jail-Related Civil Suits

186-0056

 This course continues an examination of issues critical to the operation of a correctional facility, focusing on the use of inmates as informants and steps you can take to avoid jail-related civil suits.
