

CORERoll Call: Response to Armed Robbery

057-0407 / 30 min

This course will discuss the various types of armed robbery and how each may affect the officer's response. Invisible deployment will be explained, as well as its importance for officer safety and response purposes. Various techniques for confronting subjects who have been identified as suspects leaving the scene of a robbery will be explained, as well as how an officer should respond to an armed robbery while off-duty. Procedures for officers to follow if confronted with a hostage situation as a result of an armed robbery will also be discussed.

Roll Call: Police Use of Force, Part 1

057-0406 / 30 min

This course is the first in a three-part series that explores police use of force. Part one identifies three areas that impact police use of force and the current issues to consider when developing use of force policies. In addition, appropriate training and investigation techniques targeted at use of force procedures are discussed.

Tactical Thinking: Approaches on Foot

111-0004 / 30 min

Tactical thinking education and drills provide officers a safe environment in which to think critically through scenarios. Practicing tactical thinking is essential to officer safety and provides experiences for the officer to draw upon during a real-life situation. This course discusses tactical thinking strategies and relates them to approaching suspects on foot. An officer's approach toward a suspect must always be carried out carefully — with full awareness of surroundings, availability of cover, and a thorough and quick assessment of the danger presented by the suspect.

Pursuit Driving

163-0004 / 30 min

This course will provide information on police pursuits. Reasons and the need for pursuits will be discussed. Pursuit polices, techniques of pursuit, and the termination of pursuit will be covered.

SUPPORTRole of the Media in Officer Behavior

111-0407 / 30 min

This course will discuss the role that the media has played in law enforcement's approach to incidents involving both deadly force and less than deadly force. Additionally, the benefits of building positive relationships with the media and the relationship public information officers can successfully build with the media will be discussed. Included will be how members of law enforcement agencies can properly conduct press conferences to satisfy the media while not compromising ongoing investigations.

Legal Update: Special Interest Aliens

164-0405 / 30 min

Since September 11, 2001, every officer in the country has been on alert for the next terrorist attack. Determining who is a potential threat is no easy task. Knowing what to look for and what to ask is crucial for every officer on the street. This course, in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, will show investigative techniques to law enforcement officers that will help you determine if an alien from a special interest country potentially poses a terrorist threat to the United States.

Corrections Digest 6: Interpersonal Communications and Weapon Control

186-0061 / 30 min

Awareness is a key element of your job. Awareness of the messages you convey during your day-to-day activities will help you resolve conflicts among inmates, and awareness of the everyday weapons available to inmates may save you from serious injury or death.

Corrections Digest 7: Edged Weapon Control and Verbal Judo

186-0062 / 30 min

Dr. George Thompson continues his presentation on use of verbal judo to control inmates, and Gary Klugiewicz gives a presentation of resisting an edged weapon attack.

Detecting the Stolen Motor Vehicle

888-0242 / 30 min

This course is designed to provide the patrol officer with a firm grounding in the basics of detecting stolen vehicles. We will discuss what to look for while on patrol, the tools of the trade, making the patrol stop, and the theft report.

Responding to Snipers and Mass Shootings

163-0001 / 30 min

This course will give first responders insight into what to expect when encountering a sniper attack and attacks where there are mass casualties. Tactical methods of will be reviewed, comparing the first widely known mass casualty sniper attack, the University of Texas tower in 1966, to the recent sniper attacks in Prince William County, Virginia.

Tools for Intelligence and Crime Analysis

161-0003 / 30 min

This course examines the tools and techniques commonly observed in intelligence and crime analysis. An emphasis is placed on understanding the intelligence and crime analysis process through the application of various techniques. Each technique is described in detail.
