

CORERoll Call: Officer Hostage

057-0408 / 30 minutes

Law enforcement officers may fall victim to a hostage-taking that results from a pre-planned attack or a crime in progress where a suspect is surprised. The hostage-taking may occur after an ambush or just by the officer being in the wrong place at the wrong time. No matter what the nature of the hostage taking, there are specific tactics that the hostage officer can use in order to help resolve the situation. Also covered in this course are ways in which an officer can stay out of a hostage situation while on duty.

Legal Update 2006-2007

111-0408 / 30 minutes

This course is designed to provide you with current U.S. Supreme Court decisions that affect your daily operations and will allow you to provide effective service to the public. This will help ensure that your investigations and referrals for prosecution are valid and proper; and will help you avoid situations that might result in adverse civil liability findings. This update focuses on cases that have a direct impact on the day-to-day law enforcement function.

Roll Call: Response to Armed Robbery

057-0407 / 30 minutes

This course discusses the various types of armed robbery and how each may affect the officer's response. Invisible deployment will be explained, as well as its importance for officer safety and response purposes. Various techniques for confronting subjects who have been identified as suspects leaving the scene of a robbery will be explained, as well as how an officer should respond to an armed robbery while off-duty. Procedures for officers to follow if confronted with a hostage situation as a result of an armed robbery are also discussed.

Roll Call: Police Use of Force, Part 1

057-0406 / 30 minutes

This course is the first in a three-part series that explores police use of force. Part one identifies three areas that impact police use of force and the current issues to consider when developing use of force policies. In addition, appropriate training and investigation techniques targeted at use of force procedures are discussed.

Tactical Thinking: Approaches on Foot

111-0004 / 30 minutes

Tactical thinking education and drills provide officers a safe environment in which to think critically through scenarios. Practicing tactical thinking is essential to officer safety and provides experiences for the officer to draw upon during a real-life situation. This course discusses tactical thinking strategies and relates them to approaching suspects on foot. An officer's approach toward a suspect must always be carried out carefully, with full awareness of surroundings, availability of cover, and a thorough and quick assessment of the danger presented by the suspect.

Roll Call: Ethical Decision-Making in Law Enforcement, Part 2

057-0306 / 30 minutes

Law enforcement is under constant scrutiny, and officers are expected to act in an ethical manner at all times. Ethical dilemmas arise throughout an officer's career; therefore, regular and intensive training must be carried out to provide the officer with a decision-making framework. This course discusses ethical dilemmas and takes the learner through the ethical framework to aid in the decision-making process.

SUPPORTRole of the Media in Officer Behavior

111-0407 / 30 minutes

This course discusses the role that the media have played in law enforcement's approach to incidents involving both deadly force and less-than-deadly force. Additionally, the benefits of building positive relationships with the media and the relationship public information officers can successfully build with the media are discussed. Included are how members of law enforcement agencies can properly conduct press conferences to satisfy the media while not compromising ongoing investigations.

Detecting the Stolen Motor Vehicle

888-0242 / 30 minutes

This course is designed to provide the patrol officer with a firm grounding in the basics of detecting stolen vehicles. We discuss what to look for while on patrol, the tools of the trade, making the patrol stop, and the theft report.

Roll Call: Off-Duty Survival

057-4006 / 30 minutes

This course looks at officers' responses to off-duty situations. A decision-making process and appropriate response choices are explained for use when the officer has time to determine a course of action. Prior planning, including the importance of an off-duty family plan, are discussed. Safe responses to the arrival of uniformed officers following the intervention or presence of an off-duty officer are also presented.

Tactical Patrol: Vehicle Search, Part 2

163-0007 / 30 minutes

This course is the second of a two part series on vehicle searches. In part two, other types of vehicle searches are discussed, including plain view seizures, motor vehicle inventory searches, and other vehicle searches, such as searches of vehicles involved in accidents and searches of vehicles that have been abandoned.

Explosives Identification: Military Ordinance

888-0246 / 30 minutes

First responders often encounter ordinance at the scene of emergencies. Concerned citizens also bring explosives that they or their children have found into police and fire stations. First responders need to be able to identify these explosives, as failure to do so may prove to be fatal. Mike Pickett, one of the most knowledgeable sources on explosives, presents a general representation of the many types of ordinance frequently used and encountered. Included in this lesson are color coding, fuses, and safety procedures to follow when responding to an explosive incident.
