

MARCH 2009 - TRAINING CALENDAR

		SHOW #	LENGTH	SYNOPSIS
A+	Roll Call: Confrontational Handcuffing	057-0108	30 minute video plus course materials	If a subject becomes uncooperative, handcuffing becomes a very difficult task. Confrontational handcuffing addresses those situations where the subject initially behaves in a cooperative manner but then decides to resist as the handcuffs are going on. Safe handcuffing has just as much to do with knowing when not to handcuff as well as what to do when the offender is trying to turn the handcuffing process into a fight.
A+	Bank Robbers	111-0208	30 minute video plus course materials	Because 2006 was a record-breaking year for bank robberies, there is a need to re-educate and in some cases educate law enforcement on what to do should a bank robbery occur. In this course, law enforcement officers will learn how banks train their tellers, the bank procedures for bank robberies, and the IACP Bank Alarm Response policy.
A+	Corrections Digest 3: Stress Reduction & Improving Officer Morale	186-0057	30 minute video plus course materials	This month, we examine the critical issues of stress reduction and morale improvement among corrections workers, as well as the role of the correctional employee as first responder.
A+	Inside the Breach, Part 2	111-0108	30 minute video plus course materials	The close-quarters environment represents the most common and the most dangerous environment faced by law enforcement. Compressed distances, compressed time frames, and rapid decisions are the deadly characteristics of the "typical" environments faced by patrol officers every day when they make contact with suspects closer than 25 yards. This course is designed to provide an understanding of skills needed for maximum performance under the deamns of close-quarters situations.
A+	Corrections Digest 4: Control	186-0059	30 minute video plus course materials	Control is a key element of your job. Whether you are controlling the inmates, controlling your suspects, or controlling situations, when you lose control, you lose the advantage. Verbal judo creator Dr. George Thompson
A+	Crime Scene Response	184-0013	30 minute video plus course materials	A conviction begins at the crime scene investigation. This activity covers the responsibilities of the investigator upon arrival.
A+	Tactical Thinking: Approaches on Foot	111-0004	30 minute video plus course materials	Tactical thinking education and drills provide officers a safe environment in which to think critically through scenarios. Practicing tactical thinking is essential to officer safety and provides experiences for the officer to draw upon during a real-life situation. This course discusses tactical thinking strategies and relates them to approaching suspects on foot. An officer's approach toward a suspect must always be carried out carefully, with full awareness of surroundings, availability of cover, and a thorough and quick assessment of the danger presented by the suspect.
A+	Roll Call: Officer Hostage	057-0408	30 minute video plus course materials	Law enforcement officers may fall victim to a hostage-taking that results from a pre-planned attack or a crime in progress where a suspect is surprised. The hostage-taking may occur after an ambush or just by the officer being in the wrong place at the wrong time. No matter what the nature of the hostage taking, there are specific tactics that the hostage officer can use in order to help resolve the situation. Also covered in this course are ways in which an officer can stay out of a hostage situation while on duty.
A+	Tactical Thinking: Driving Safety	111-0005	30 minute video plus course materials	When responding to an emergency or chasing a suspect, safe driving can easily take a back seat to emotion and adrenaline. Hazardous, unanticipated road conditions make it even tougher to drive safely. The keys to keeping a cool head and staying safe while in the drivers seat are mental rehearsal, tactical thinking, and anticipating the possible dangers ahead. Join us as we discuss the various circumstances in which an officer operates a patrol vehicle.
A+	Violent Offenders Analysis, Part 1: Don't Underestimate Your Adversary	179-0118	30 minute video plus course materials	All crimes are committed by humans, and at all crime scenes, there will be a display of human behavior that lends itself to analysis and interpretation. In this course, FBI SSA Alan Brantley gives us an overview of the National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime and introduces a three-pronged approach to understanding violent criminal behavior.
A+	Legal Update	111-0408	30 minute video plus course materials	This course is designed to provide you with current U.S. Supreme Court decisions that affect your daily operations and will allow you to provide effective service to the public. This will help ensure that your investigations and referrals for prosecution are valid and proper; and will help you avoid situations that might result in adverse civil liability finds. This update focuses on cases that have a direct impact on the day-to-day law enforcement function.
