A+	Police Use of Force, Part 2	057-0506	30 minute video plus course materials	This course, the second in a three-part use of force series, will identify how to make a proper restraint as well as medical issues and concerns resulting from police restraints. The issue of sudden death and a potentially deadly restraint scenario will also be discussed.
A+	FIRSTaid: Infectious Diseases	070-0605	30 minute video plus course materials	If you were first to arrive at a medical scene, would you be prepared to give first aid? Our four-part FIRSTaid series is intended to provide you with a basic understanding of medical conditions and procedures you may encounter in the field. This course covers infectious diseases and tells you how to recognize the threat, when and how to use barrier protection, and what to do if you think you have been infected.
A+	First Responder Level Hostage Negotiations	057-0605	30 minute video plus course materials	When you are faced with a barricaded subject, a suicidal subject, or a hostage-taker, you must try to bring the situation to a quick and safe conclusion. When the subject refuses to comply and is contained, the first responder must rely on his or her communication skills to de-escalate the incident, maintain control and safety, and provide support when the tactical and negotiations teams arrive. This course provides fundamental training in handling critical incidents and establishing person-to-person communication.
A+	Armored and Dangerous	057-0705	30 minute video plus course materials	The North Hollywood Bank shootout was an example of a dangerous trend confronting law enforcement. Bandits wearing body armor and brandishing assault rifles are becoming more common; they are turning up in cities and towns all across the country. This course shows you how two communities responded when faced with desperate criminals who were armored and dangerous.
A+	Booby Traps	057-0905	30 minute video plus course materials	Drug dealers want to protect their drug labs against other drug dealers and against you. They will rig their labs with devices that can seriously injure or kill the unwary. Booby traps have long been employed by people to protect their turf. Police officers need to have a general understanding of how booby traps are designed and employed so they can be aware and defend against them.
A+	Tactical Thinking: Approaches on Foot	111-0004	30 minute video plus course materials	Tactical thinking education and drills provide officers a safe environment in which to think critically through scenarios. Practicing tactical thinking is essential to officer safety and provides experiences for the officer to draw upon during a real-life situation. This course discusses tactical thinking strategies and relates them to approaching suspects on foot. An officer's approach toward a suspect must always be carried out carefully, with full awareness of surroundings, availability of cover, and a thorough and quick assessment of the danger presented by the suspect.
A+	Tactical Thinking: Driving Safety	111-0005	30 minute video plus course materials	When responding to an emergency or chasing a suspect, safe driving can easily take a back seat to emotion and adrenaline. And hazardous, unanticipated road conditions make it even tougher to drive safely. The keys to keeping a cool head and staying safe while in the driver's seat are mental rehearsal, tactical thinking, and anticipating the possible dangers ahead. Join this course to learn about the various circumstances in which an officer operates a patrol vehicle and the unique hazards that surround such operation.
A+	Cold Case Files	111-0806	30 minute video plus course materials	Are you a fan of the television series Cold Case Files? Think you might want to become a cold case investigator? This course takes a realistic look into the make-up of a cold case squad and the personal characteristics that help cold case detectives solve old cases. It reviews the challenges that must be overcome in order to reopen cold cases and discusses current resources that investigators use to solve old homicides.
A+	Police Shootings	057-1206	30 minute video plus course materials	Every year, officers are shot and killed in the line of duty. In an effort to reduce the number of deaths that occur, it is necessary to examine the deadly circumstances surrounding past incidents. This course discusses the statistics surrounding officer shooting situations and identifies factors that are common to deadly incidents. Tactical thinking and mental conditioning are discussed, as well as how officers can better train for a possible shooting incident using "cover and concealment" and "instinctive shooting." Finally, we address concerns for officers who have been involved in a shooting incident.
A+	Inside the Breach, Part 1	111-1207	30 minute video plus course materials	The close quarters environment represents the most common and most dangerous environment faced by law enforcement; compressed distances, compressed time frames, and rapid decisions are the deadly characteristics of the "typical" environments faced by patrol officers every day when they make contact with suspects closer than 25 yards. This course is designed to elevate an officer's knowledge, skills, performance, and safety in these situations.
A+	Felony Stops	057-0608	30 minute video plus course materials	This course covers active thinking protocol for the successful execution of a high-risk traffic stop. Use of the environment, use of back-up officers, and strategic pre-event planning and critical thinking are addressed
